

IS IT A LOTTERY?

IMPROVING GENDER FAIRNESS IN RESEARCH FUNDING

Conference of the GRANted Research Project

February 24th 2020 | 09:30 – 17:30

Sensengasse 1 | Haus der Forschung | 1090 Vienna

9:30

Arrival

Opening address: Klement Tockner, president FWF

10:00

Welcome: Anne Pepin (tbc), EC representative
Wolfgang Polt, JOANNEUM RESEARCH

Introduction:

»The GRANted project: How gender bias in research funding is analysed«

Helene Schiffbänker, JOANNEUM RESEARCH, Coordinator

10:15

»Studying gender bias in grant allocations: the ERC case«

Peter van den Besselaar, TMC

11:00

Coffee Break

11:15

Keynote 1: »Experimental approach: Using lottery in allocating funding«
Ulrike Bischler, VW Foundation

12:15

Co-Creation Session 1: Selection process – peer review

13:15

Lunch Break

14:30

Keynote 2: »Academics as superheroes: How the exceptionally masculine occupational stereotype in academia affects women (and men)«
Ruth van Veelen, Utrecht University

15:30

Coffee Break

15:45

Existing tools for addressing bias

16:00

Co-Creation Session 2: Gender bias in peer review processes

17:15

Wrap up & Outlook

17:30

Networking – Snacks & Refreshments

Project coordinator: JOANNEUM RESEARCH

Teresa Mom Consultancy BV

This project has received funding from the Europe Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 824574.

@eu_granted

Subscribe to our newsletter:

www.granted-project.eu

